Sweet-ly the flowers per - fume this spot so fair while si-lent
-ly des cend the shades of night The lake how clear, how mild and fresh the air, and peaceful even - ing sheds its calm de -
-light, Land of my birth Land of my heart lov'd spot of earth from thee I'll ne - ver part.

2nd VERSE.

Friends of my youth, Oh let us now rejoice, while evening breezes summer's heat re-move, While all the moun-tains
e-cho to our voice with songs of tender-ness and notes of Love.
Land of my birth, Land of my heart, lov'd spot of earth from thee I'll ne--ver part.

3d VERSE.

The moon-beams pier--cing through the leafy trees, as-sure my heart its cherish'd love is near and now in dis--tance borne a-long the breeze, His well known ac--cent floats upon my ear. Land of my birth, Land of my heart, lov'd spot of earth from thee I'll ne--ver part.
